DISCLAIMER NOTICE RE: PENSION CENTRAL

The attention of the National Pension Commission (PenCom) has been drawn to messages being circulated to members of the public by an entity known as Pension Central.

In one of the messages, Pension Central touted its ability to remit pension contributions.

In view of the above, the Commission wishes to clarify as follows:

1. The Collection of Pension Contributions remains the exclusive function of the Pension Fund Custodians licensed by the National Pension Commission.
2. Monthly pension contributions are remitted by employers directly to the Pension Fund Custodians accompanied with schedules that contain relevant information about the employees e.g. names, RSA PINs and PFAs.
3. PenCom has therefore, not authorized Pension Central or any other agent to carry out the remittance of pension contributions.
4. Members of the public are hereby advised to visit the Commission's website (www.pencom.gov.ng) for all accurate and reliable information on the pension industry and the Commission's activities.
